Quality

In a world where almost everybody promises quality – it is reassuring to find a company that actually delivers.

Comprehensive Testing Service

Full Functional Testing

At Lantek Corporation we believe that quality and attention to detail makes all the difference, which is why quality is not just a word we use; it is a way of working that we embrace.

The commitment to quality begins with ensuring our suppliers conform to our stringent quality standard and continues with our in house quality processes, right through to our Quality Guarantee.

Expert sourcing through our global, quality assured offices gives full traceability to ISO 9001:2000 compliant standards. This combined with comprehensive testing services from X-Ray to full functional testing and the Lantek guarantee allows you to buy with complete confidence.

Service

In a world where many proclaim great service, Lantek is a company prepared to stand on its reputation.

Our commitment to service begins with our highly trained, dedicated account managers who are committed to go the extra mile to get the components you need, when you need them, at the best price.

Within the industry we provide the highest levels of response and service because each requirement is effectively researched and negotiated through our global network of offices. Our high service levels continue with rapid turnaround, guaranteed shipping and online order tracking.

Our service is more than our people. It includes access to our advanced service tools, such as the unique online website that allows you to view all quotations and orders while viewing the world's supply of electronic components.
